Yesterday afternoon George Hanson, a laborer employed at the LaBelle iron works, on the South Side, was painfully injured. The rolls were being changed, when a piece of hot metal flew out and struck Hanson in the corner of the left eye. Though very painful, the wound will not prove serious.

Broke his Arm.

Mr. A. B. Butler met with an exceedingly unfortunate accident at 6 o'clock last evening. Mr. Butler was riding a fractious horse which became frightened at something, and rearing, fell backward. The Coxey Business.

Many and various rumors flew over the city yesterday afternoon regarding the approach of Galvin's division of Coxey's forces, it being said on the South Side that the colonel with two hundred men had arrived at Bellaire, where the Baltimore & Ohio people had refused to allow them to cross the bridge into West Virginia. Harry Temple's Wife.

The following from the Wabash, Ind., Times, of a late date, will be read with interest here, as it is in reference to the recent temple banyan case in this city: "There is not a person in Wabash who knows anything about the Temple family who for a moment entertains the slightest suspicion regarding Harry Temple and Hetta Smith not having been married. It is on record in black and white in the county clerk's office, and the fact of their being man and wife can easily be proved. Mrs. Temple says she will appear against her husband when his case is called again, and will be more determined than ever to convict him, inasmuch as he has attempted to besmirch her good name and make it appear that they had lived in adultery for so many years."

HOFFMANN-NOLTE.

A Brilliant Wedding at St. Alphonsus Church Yesterday.

At 9 o'clock yesterday forenoon at St. Alphonsus' church Mr. Joseph Hoffmann, son of Mr. John G. Hoffman, and Miss Mary Nolte, daughter of Mr. Frederick Nolte, were united in marriage. The prominence of the contracting parties made the wedding especially attractive, and the church was already crowded with people when the bridal party arrived. The altar had been beautifully and profusely decorated with flowers, and presented an attractive appearance. As the bridal party marched up the aisle the strains of Döllman's wedding march pealed from the organ. The attendants came first, in the following order: Bridesmaids, Misses Koso and Annie Hoffmann, sisters of the groom, and Mary Stonder, of New Martinsville; groomsmen, Frank Schroeder; ushers, Messrs. William Rompo, William Kirbach and Henry Holmbrecht. They were followed by the groom and bride.

Arrived at the altar they were met by Rev. Father Didacus, who performed the ceremony. When it was over the newly wedded pair and their immediate friends were driven to the residence of the bride's parents, on South Chapline street, where a reception and dinner were given. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmann left for an extended bridal tour in the west.

Among the guests, who witnessed the ceremony were Archbishop Kain, of St. Louis, and Bishop Donahue.

M'FADDEN-HENNER.

A Notable Wedding Celebrated at the Cathedral Yesterday.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock Katherine Minetta, daughter of Mrs. Hermann Renner, was married to Mr. Neil A. McFadden, of the firm of M. J. McFadden & Co. The ceremony was performed in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Rev. Father McDermott officiating. The altar was very prettily arrayed in flowers for the occasion. The ushers were Messrs. Joseph Sheridan and John Casey, of Pittsburgh, and Louis Renner and J. B. McFadden, brothers of the bride and groom. The maids of honor, were Miss Mamie Leigh, of Columbus, and Miss Della McFadden, sister of the groom.

The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by the organist as the party approached the altar.

The bride was dressed in white corded silk, trimmed with lace and decorated with orange blossoms, with white hat, gloves and shoes. The bride's maids wore white India silk costumes, complete, and carried bunches of roses.

The ceremony over the bridal party was driven to the residence of the bride's mother, on Twentieth street, where a reception and lunch were given. Later Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left over the Pan-Handle railroad for a lengthy eastern tour.

Our Health.

We're not in "business for our health." We don't sell shoes at cost. Our low prices come from two things: We know how to buy right and we are willing to get rich slowly.
